Central Connecticut Coast YMCA Job Description

Job Title: Camp Photographer
Job Code: PHPHT

Reports To: Camp Director
Department: 450 Resident Camp

A Career with a Cause:

Our mission and core values are brought to life by our culture. In the Y, we strive to live our cause of strengthening communities with purpose and intentionality every day. Our mission is to put Judeo-Christian principles into practice through programs that build healthy spirit, mind, and body for all. The Y strengthens the foundations of communities and families through our key areas of focus; youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility and our core values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility. We are committed to this cause because a strong community is achieved when we invest in our children, health, neighbors, and values.

We are welcoming: we are open to all. We are a place where you can belong and grow. We are genuine: we value you and embrace your individuality. We are hopeful: we believe in you and your potential to become a catalyst in the world. We are nurturing: we support you in your journey to develop your full potential. We are determined: above all else, we are on a relentless quest to make our community stronger beginning with you.

Position Summary:

The Camp Photographer will work to update the camp photo sharing website a minimum of once per day. This program is in place to ensure all parents are able to glimpse "a day in the life" of their camper(s) while at Hi-Rock. The right candidate will be diligent in their efforts to keep the photo website up to date through photographing camp activities or soliciting the help of other camp staff to photograph camp activities and posting photos online or soliciting the help of other camp staff to post photos online.

Job Segments:

- Coordinate with the Program Directors to document campers, program and community throughout each session, including meals, daily activities and evening programs.
- Take cabin photos during each week of camp.
- Ability to identify publishable photographs of campers and camp staff.
- Participate in the planning and implementation of special events and scheduling photo sessions.
- Supervise campers in a manner that promotes an enjoyable and beneficial experience.
- Comfortable approaching and interacting with groups of children and adults.
- Ability to step in and assume other camp duties as needed.
- Post photos daily to the camp Bunk1 account for parents to view and purchase.
- Act as an extra set of eyes around camp. Provide feedback to camp directors to ensure high quality and safe programming throughout camp.
- Ensure staff are enforcing and following all rules and are fulfilling all assigned duties in the arts program.
- Correct and document, as necessary, situations that endanger the emotional or physical safety of any person.
- Order equipment and supplies as needed.
- Complete or submit requests for repairs for any equipment and keep an inventory of all supplies.
- Demonstrate and teach the values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility to all campers and staff.
- Follow all camp rules and regulations and enforce them among peers.
- Maintain positive public relations with parents, visitors, and the general public at all times.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Essential Functions:

- Ability to communicate, supervise, and work with assigned ages and skill levels and provide necessary instructions.
- Abilities to observe camper and staff behavior, assess its appropriateness, enforce appropriate safety regulations and emergency procedures, and apply appropriate behavior-management techniques.
